SITUATION

Cumnock Knowes is situated in a commanding position at the end of its own private track, surrounded by countryside and overlooking the River Deugh, just over 1 mile south of Carsphairn on the A713. Carsphairn is a quiet village with an active community and services including a village shop and cafe, heritage centre and church. To the south, St John's Town of Dalry has two hotels, garage with small supermarket, and a village shop with post office, primary and secondary schools. A broader range of shops and services are available in Castle Douglas and the regional capital of Dumfries. To the north Ayr offers a much wider range of services.

The South West of Scotland is well known for its mild climate, attractive unspoilt countryside and the diversity of sporting and recreational pursuits, and is a popular tourist destination. There are good hill walking opportunities in the Southern Uplands as well as the nearby Galloway Hills, and cycling along some of the designated cycle routes as well as the Seven Stanes mountain bike routes, including Ae Forest and the Galloway Forest Park. The Galloway Forest Park which is known for its beauty and tranquillity, being the centre of the Galloway and Southern Ayrshire Biosphere and Britain's First Dark Sky Park, which affords enthusiasts phenomenal views of the stars. There are numerous sporting opportunities such as shooting and stalking, as well as trout and salmon fishing on the region's numerous lochs and rivers. Loch Ken is renowned for its water pursuits such as water skiing, sailing, and fishing.

Communications to the area are very good. There is a main line railway station in Dumfries and also Lockerbie providing excellent links to both the north and south. There are regular flights to other parts of the UK, Ireland and Continental Europe from Prestwick Airport 33.5 miles, Glasgow and Edinburgh Airports 66.4 miles and 100 miles respectively.

An application for a nearby Windfarm named Quantans Hill Wind Farm is currently under review. Further details on the link below:
