SITUATION

Windyridge sits within the village of Auchencairn in the National Scenic Area of the East Stewarty Coast. Auchencairn is a vibrant village with a strong sense of community. The village has its own church, primary school, Bowling Green, a shop with a Post Office and licenced café which does takeaway most nights, a day crèche, and a garage. There is a bus route to the local towns direct from the centre of the village and school buses travel to the secondary schools at Kirkcudbright and Dalbeattie. Balcary Bay Hotel is situated just a short distance from the village and provides dining and accommodation.

Castle Douglas, known as Dumfries & Galloway's Food Town, is a thriving market town providing a broad range of shops and services including two supermarkets, solicitors, large health centre and numerous individual shops and businesses. The regional capital of Dumfries offers a wider range of high street shops, retail parks, university campuses and a large hospital. Mainline train services are available at Dumfries, Lockerbie and Carlisle, with the M74 and M6 motorway networks available at Gretna, Moffat and Lockerbie.

DESCRIPTION

Windyridge is a deceptively spacious detached family home over two levels in the heart of the popular village of Auchencairn. Although now in need of modernisation, Windyridge presents an exciting opportunity to purchase a family home with an abundance of adaptable space to suit the buyer's specific needs and requirements. The property sits within an extensive site extending to circa 0.3 acres and enjoys stunning far reaching countryside views. Entrance from Church Road leads directly to a spacious hallway, providing access to the three bedrooms, all of which have fitted wardrobe storage and main bathroom. From the hallway, hatch access to the boarded loft via Ramsay ladder, which is currently laid out as a home office, a large Velux window allows the far-reaching countryside view to be enjoyed. Completing the ground floor is the snug and an attractive dual aspect living room with large windows to the front and rear of the property - allowing the views to be enjoyed. The exposed stone gable wall provides an attractive feature housing the gas stove. From here stairs descend to the lower ground floor and enter the Kitchen/Dining space, a sociable space which has a partial division, the new buyer may decide to combine and extend the space subject to planning consents. The garden room provides a space to relax and enjoy the view over the garden with French doors proving access to the rear garden. Continuing through, door opens to a central hallway/workspace with cupboard storage and further access to the rear garden. Utility / WC with plumbing for a washing machine. A large workshop space and walk in shelved store/larder complete the lower ground floor.

A single garage with double doors to the front accessed externally adjoins the property. An attractive detached stone building sits near to the street, a very useful space which sits under a slate roof, which could be utilised as a hobby room/home office specific to the buyer's needs.
